Enter/Stay in Taiwan

【To Enter Taiwan】

Visa application

To apply for your visa, you need to bring your Letter of Admission. For other documents required for visa application, please visit the website of the Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs at:

<https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-181-477-e95f0-2.html>

◆ It is strongly advised NOT to enter Taiwan with a landing visa.

◆ One-semester program students

Apply for a VISITOR VISA before entering Taiwan. If you need to extend your visa after entering Taiwan, you must apply between 15 to 30 days prior to the expiration. The application will NOT be accepted more than 30 days prior to the expiration. (Applying for a UI number is advised.)

◆ One-year program students

Apply for a Resident VISA before entering Taiwan and apply for an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) within 30 days of your arrival in Taiwan. (Taiwan's immigration regulations require foreigners staying in Taiwan for more than 6 months to have an ARC.)

ARC can only be applied online. The link to the application is as below.

<https://coa.immigration.gov.tw/coa-frontend/student/entry/foreign-student>

Documents needed to apply for an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC)

1. Completed application form
2. Passport valid for at least 6 months (original and one photocopy)
3. One color head-and-shoulders photo, 4.5 x 3.5 inches, with a white background, taken within the last six months
4. Original student ID and one photocopy
5. Certificate of enrollment or Student ID with registration stamp
6. Residence Certificate in Taiwan (Housing contract in Taiwan)
7. Application fee: NT$1,000 (ARC needs to be extended each year.)
8. Additional supporting documents may be requested by the National Immigration Agency, Ministry of Interior. For example, proof of MOFA or ICDF scholarship recipients.

How to get to CCU Campus

1. FREE Airport Pick-up Service: We offer free airport pick-up services for new students from Taoyuan International Airport to Chinese Culture University. Please be sure to sign up for this service before the deadline.
2. Taxi: If you are unable to meet the airport pick-up schedule, you can take a taxi from the airport. The estimated cost is approximately NT$1,500-NT$2,000.
3. MRT & Bus: Take the Taoyuan Metro from stations A12 or A13 to A1 (Taipei Main Station). Transfer to the Taipei Metro, traveling from R10 to R15 (Jiantan). Then, take a bus (R5 or 303) to CCU.

Registration and Student ID Card

- ◆ Report your arrival in person in Room203, Fe Hwa Building to complete the registration process.
- ◆ NOTE: CCU Offices are NOT open on Saturdays and Sundays.

To expedite the registration process, please have the following documents in electronic format on your mobile device when you check in to report your arrival in person. Name each file using your student ID number followed by your last name (e.g., B1234567_KUO).

- Passport and visa copy
 - Entry Stamp on your visa
 - Letter of admission
 - Agreement of scholarship (if any)
 - Certificate of scholarship (if any)
- ◆ Registration (completing payment for dormitory fee and Insurance fee)
 - ◆ We recommend paying the bill in cash upon your arrival in Taiwan. You can make the payment at the campus post office, cashier's office, 7-Eleven, or FamilyMart.
 - ◆ The payment bill can be downloaded on MyCCU student website. Go to "SERVICE" and click "TUITION INVOICE".

◆ Student ID Card

To obtain your student ID card, log in to the MyCCU student website using your ID number and password, then upload your photo. You can collect your ID card from the Office of Academic Affairs (10th Floor, Da-en Building) approximately 7 days after uploading your photo.

◆ Registration for the 2nd Semester

If your exchange program is one year, you must register again in the beginning of the 2nd semester at the Office of International Affairs.

Health Examination

This Health Examination required by CCU is a different health examination from the one you underwent for your visa.)

To comply with the Ministry of Education's 'Student Health Examination Implementation Measures,' new students must undergo a health examination upon admission. If you are able to provide the following medical reports in English, completed within the last three months, you are exempt from repeating the two checks listed below.

Measles and Rubella Check. A certificate of vaccination or a positive antibody report.

Tuberculosis Check.

You can make an appointment via following links:

- Online appointment link: <https://reurl.cc/VNobYN>

Insurance

1. CCU Student Insurance

CCU student insurance will be included in the registration bill. It is a one-semester plan. The cost and coverage are as follows:

Cost: NTD 335 for a semester (price may vary).

Coverage:

- (1) Accidents: Outpatient treatment, hospitalization, death, and disability.
- (2) Illness: hospitalization, death, and disability.

2. Private Medical Insurance or National Health Insurance

Private medical insurance for exchange students will be added to the registration bill. The fee is NTD 3,000 per semester, subject to change based on the insurance provider's contract.

International students with an ARC who have resided in Taiwan continuously for over 6 months are eligible to enroll in the National Health Insurance. The monthly cost is NTD 826, though this may vary based on government policy.

For more information about private medical insurance and National Health Insurance, please go to the website below.

Campus Accommodation

CCU's policy ensures that every exchange student has a dormitory room reserved. If a student does not notify us in advance, we will secure accommodation on their behalf. The dormitory fee will be included in your tuition bill.

♦ Accommodation Fee: NTD 11,700-16,700 per semester, depending on your assigned dormitory. (Fee may vary)

♦ Security Deposit

All campus accommodations require a security deposit of NTD 1,000. Even if the agreement between your home university and Chinese Culture University waives the accommodation fee, you must still pay the security deposit, as it cannot be waived.

Refund of Security Deposit

The deposit will be refunded in cash if no charges or damages are incurred and the dorm manager completes the inspection upon check-out. Please note the refund can only be processed during weekdays.

♦ Campus Accommodation for Summer/Winter

Applications for summer and winter accommodation will be announced approximately 1.5 to 2 months before the final exam period ends. Please monitor your CCU student email and the Teams app (login with your CCU student email and MyCCU password) for details on the application process and fees if you need campus accommodation during the summer or winter vacation.

Course Overview and Registration

♦ Course Registration

To register for courses, log in to the MyCCU student website using your student ID and password.

NOTE: Some courses may not be available for online registration and may require using the Course Add-and-Drop Form instead. If you encounter this issue and need assistance, please visit the Office of Academic Affairs (10th Floor, Da En Building) or the Office of International Affairs (Room 203, Fei Hwa Building).

◆ Courses Open to Exchange Students

Non-credit Mandarin Chinese Courses

The Office of International Affairs offers free Mandarin Chinese courses for all international students. The course list and schedule are typically announced about a week before the semester begins. Please go to the following website for more detailed information.

<https://shorturl.at/uLLtN>

English-taught Courses

Select 'College of International Studies and Foreign Languages' from the left column. Then, under 'Department' in the right column, choose 'Global Business'.

◆ Credit Equivalency

To convert CCU course credits to your home university's system, use the following formula: 1 credit equals 18 hours.

Leaving CCU (Deregistration)

Before departing from CCU, you must complete the deregistration process. The Office of International Affairs will send reminders and provide the required information and forms about a month before the end of the final exam period. Be sure to check your CCU student email and Teams app (using your CCU student email and MyCCU password).

Transcript

The Office of International Affairs will apply for transcripts (in both Chinese and English) on behalf of all exchange students. You and your home university will receive a PDF of your transcripts via email. If you need a physical copy, please email the Office of International Affairs at exchange@ulive.pccu.edu.tw to request one after you receive the PDF..
