

Chinese Culture University International Foundation Program Scholarship Regulations

Approved by 1808 Administrative Council Meeting dated Oct. 04, 2023

Modified by 1817 Administrative Council Meeting dated Jul. 03, 2024

Modified by 1833 Administrative Council Meeting dated Nov. 05, 2025

Objective

Chinese Culture University established the following guidelines in an effort to encourage outstanding international students (including overseas Chinese students) to improve their Chinese language proficiency while undertaking the International Foundation Program so as to continue their academic studies.

Eligibility

1. Students should meet the following criteria by the time they enter college level:
 - (1) Students shall have no records of misbehaviors.
 - (2) Students have taken leaves of less than 12 hours per month during their studies at pre-college level (absences due to major diseases or accidents excluded).
2. Students should meet the following criteria for their second and/or third year of studies at college level:
 - (1) Students should achieve a GPA of 70 or above and a Student Conduct Grade of 80 or above from the previous academic year.
 - (2) Students must pass the TOCFL level 3 (B1). Such students shall have no records of misbehaviors.
 - (3) The total hours of absence must not exceed one-fifth of the total course hours in each semester.
3. Recipients of the scholarship must provide 60 hours of service to the school. Records of service must be made and sent to the Office of International and Mainland China Affairs to get housing fee waivers for the following semester.

Scholarship Description

1. Students who pass the TOCFL test and have no record of misbehaviors during their studies at pre-college level may receive the following rewards upon completing college enrollment:
 - (1) Those who pass TOCFL Level 2 (A2) will receive an award of NT$20,000.
 - (2) Those who pass TOCFL Level 3 (B1) will receive an award of NT$30,000.
 - (3) Only one of the above awards may be granted. Repeated applications are not allowed.
2. Recipients who complete Chinese courses and enter college level could get 30% deduction of the tuition fees when studying for the first year, 30% deduction of the tuition fees when studying for the second year, and 20% deduction of the tuition fees when studying for the third year.

3. During studies at pre-college level and the first and second years of college level, students may receive a waiver for basic on-campus housing fees (excluding winter and summer breaks). Eligible students may receive housing fee waivers according to the following guidelines:

(1) A waiver of basic on-campus housing fees for students at the pre-college level.

(2) Starting from the second semester, students must complete the required service hours to receive the basic on-campus housing fee waiver for the following semester.

Application Review Procedures

The Office of International and Mainland China Affairs will review the applications with professors in the relevant departments to decide the nominated recipients and the amount of money for the scholarships. The nominations must be approved by the President.

Notes

1. Enrollment in the Fall semester of 2025-26 academic year and earlier are subject to the regulations in effect prior to the amendment that took effect on November 5, 2025.
2. Enrollment in the Spring semester of 2025-26 Academic Year are subject to the regulations effective after the amendment on November 5, 2025.

The guidelines shall be approved by the President prior to implementation. Any amendments shall be processed accordingly.